Jaya Narang is a trainee solicitor. Jaya joined Hickman & Rose in March 2024 and is spending two years working across all of the firm's departments.

Jaya is a graduate of Forensic Science from the University of Kent, where she undertook an academic year in industry. Jaya also completed the Graduate Diploma in Law and Legal Practice Course at the University of Law.

Prior to joining Hickman & Rose, Jaya worked as a paralegal at a number of other highly-ranked crime firms, as well as a busy legal aid practice. Jaya has also volunteered with Amicus on a pro-bono basis to review death penalty cases in Florida; overturn wrongful convictions; and remove incarcerated individuals from death row.
