

Myria Antony

Paralegal

| | |
|---|--|
|  | mantony@hickmanandrose.co.uk |
|  | +44 (0)207 702 5332 |

Myria Antony joined Hickman & Rose’s Serious and General Crime Department in October 2025.

Myria read Economics and Finance at the University of Bristol and Management at the LSE. Following this, she worked in the financial sector at Citigroup and Aviva, followed by strategy consulting at Decision Technology and Deloitte. She then worked in the non-profit sector at the Emerging Markets Foundation working on development and fundraising for marginalised communities across emerging markets.

Deciding to pursue a career at the Bar, she completed the Postgraduate Diploma in Law followed by the Bar Course at the University of Law. Myria received a scholarship from Inner Temple as well as the Deans Award for Excellence from the University of Law for the Bar Course. Myria will be called to the Bar in November 2025, and she has pupillage with Red Lion Chambers commencing in September 2026.

Prior to joining Hickman & Rose, she worked as a senior litigation paralegal at a law firm in London. She also has a wide range of volunteering experience, including Vocalise and Lawyers Against Poverty.