Jaya Narang is an Associate in Hickman & Rose's Business Crime and Regulatory departments. Prior to joining the team, she spent two years working across all of the firm's practice areas as a trainee solicitor.

Before joining Hickman & Rose, Jaya worked at a number of highly-ranked criminal defence firms and a busy legal aid practice, gaining exposure to the full spectrum of criminal offences as well as lengthy and complex SFO prosecutions.

Jaya studied Forensic Science at the University of Kent before completing the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL) and Legal Practice Course (LPC).

Jaya is a member of the Young Fraud Lawyers' Association and Women in Criminal Law.
